

Kursk

Kursk is one of the historical centers of the Russian Federation, located 520 km south of Moscow. It is easy to get to Kursk from any region of Russia by any type of transport: plane, train, bus. It is a small city compared to other regional centers, but at the same time it is famous for its long history and sights. There are churches and monasteries, theaters and museums, memorial complexes. The city offers excursions, as well as exciting cultural activities. There are stadiums, a cart track, a racetrack. Here, in Kursk, you can enjoy a moderate rhythm of life, take a break from the hustle and bustle of the metropolis. Nevertheless, a large number of young people and students who live here can spend their free time in a variety of modern shopping and entertainment centers, attend music festivals and sports competitions.
